History of BJU Societies
Society has been an important part of Bob Jones University since the school’s founding in 1927. In fact, an article in a 1929 issue of the BJU magazine recounts the resolves of the first four societies formed. These societies were Sigma Kappa Rho and Sigma Lambda Delta for the women and Chi Delta Theta and William Jennings Brian for the men. Rho’s declared purpose was to invest a commitment in its members to “social, ethical, and literary achievements.” The women of Sigma Lambda Delta were bound by a strong sense of “sisterly love” and were dedicated to “clean morals and pure Christianity.” Likewise, for the men, Chi Delta passionately wanted its members to “develop spiritually,” so they opened each meeting with “Scripture reading and prayer.” William Jennings Bryan, especially, desired to “carry out His great work and serve humanity.”

We pray that as a new society officer this year, you will appreciate these firm resolutions in the societies of the past and apply them to your own society today for the glory of God.
Chaplain

I. TEACHING

A. The society Chaplain is responsible to share God’s Word with society members. This is an amazing opportunity and weighty responsibility.
B. On occasion, a society chaplain may ask a GL or AGL in the society to speak in their place. If a student is not a GL or AGL, please email the name of the student you would like to speak to the Coordinator of Student Leadership. He will get that person checked within a day or two.
C. A society may have one special speaker (alumni, visitor, faculty/staff, etc.) each semester. The CSL must approve the special speaker. Please submit the person’s name and information to the CSL. It will take a day or two to get this person approved, so please plan well in advance.

II. OPPORTUNITIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

A. As chaplain you have the opportunity to work with the president and vice-president to set the spiritual direction for your society. You will lead through word and by example. For your society to grow spiritually, it needs godly oversight, example, and direction. Set clear, attainable goals and commit yourself to time in the Word and in prayer. Take every advantage to minister to your society members and encourage them in their walk with the Lord.
B. Make personal visits to the rooms of your freshman as well as those society members who are spiritually struggling. This is an excellent way to make an impact for the Lord upon your members. Go to lunch with them, or start a special discipleship group for those interested. Show your members that you care about them and are willing to help no matter what. Always come to your society meetings with a well-prepared message.
C. As chaplain you will have tremendous opportunities to grow in your walk with the Lord as well as in your teaching abilities. Treat this office seriously, and put all you have into it. You can learn much and prepare yourself greatly for future ministry by the work you put into this opportunity of influence.
D. The ISC Chaplains are eager to work with you to support and encourage you in your service as a chaplain. Please make an effort to get to know them.

III. AUDITS

A. Once during the semester, the ISC chaplain will ask you to turn in a log from this semester recording each Tuesday Prayer meeting, and Friday society, who spoke, and what the topic or text was. You should keep record of this throughout the semester. Please do not wait to fill in all the blanks the week of your audit.
B. It is recommended to set up a schedule (with topic and text) at the beginning of the semester so there will be clear and thematic direction for the Scriptural challenges throughout the semester.
C. The purpose of the audit is not to “sermon check” but to provide opportunity for chaplains to think and plan long-term and ensure chaplains are investing the appropriate time into their office.

D. Check ALL society publications with the CSL. This includes t-shirts, posters, buttons, etc.
E. Coordinate information dealing with society colors and image

   2. Please drop off your notebook in the CLD office in the Den when it is due.
   3. Societies whose officers do not meet regularly are subject to failing their audits.
   4. Secretaries who do not take accurate attendance can and will be removed from office. If the President and VP are knowledgeable about the secretary’s lack of attendance taking, they will also be removed. There have been some serious discipline problems in the past because secretaries did not take attendance. Therefore the strictness and seriousness of your attendance taking must be observed. Thank you for your diligence in this area.
E. If you plan to be on cuts, please make arrangements for someone else to take attendance.
I. DUTIES

A. Song Leading
1. The society chorister should work in cooperation with the chaplain in planning each week. The songs should be worshipful (not lethargic) and the conducting enthusiastic. In many ways the song service sets the tone for the meeting. Put some thought and prayer into the selection and presentation.
2. Vary the format occasionally during the first 10 minutes of the society to keep it as interesting and inspirational as possible. Feel free to use the hymnals, appropriate chorus books, PPT’s, etc. which have been selected as options. Make sure you are in compliance with copyright laws.
3. Drums (bongo, box, or other types) are not to be used in society meetings.

B. Special Music (The chorister is in charge of arranging special music for the society.)
1. Special Music: All special music sung inside or outside of your society must be checked every semester before it can be performed. Performing unchecked music will result in demerits.
2. Checking Special Music
   a. All special music (in or out of society) must be checked.
   b. Music Check is in FA 120 every Monday and Thursday night from 6:30 – 7:00 p.m. Please notify Mr. Duane Ream ahead of time that music needs to be checked.
   c. All music must be well prepared. Bring a 3x5 card.
   d. Music for dating outings must be checked 2 weeks in advance.
   e. The Music Checking Regulations Sheet is posted on the Fine Arts bulletin board.
3. Choirs: Society choirs may practice in their assigned prayer meeting rooms 45 minutes before their weekly prayer meetings.

C. Copyright Information
1. IF a song is in public domain (that means no copyright notice appears on the page, and the author and composer wrote the song over 75 years ago), THEN it is legal to make a copy straight from the book.
2. IF the words are over 75 years old (just see when the author died), THEN you can make a legal copy of the words only, even if the music is arranged differently.
3. IF the composer or publisher of a piece of music still owns the copyright, THEN you must put the BJU CCLI # (1338029) on any piece of any printed form, including powerpoints.

CHURCH COPYRIGHT LICENSE INC. (CCLI)

A. Proper Format
   • All overheads and individual song sheets (e.g. that would be distributed to the society) of any type must follow the following requirements:
     1. Every version of a song that is duplicated must contain the a) song title, b) writer credit(s), and c) copyright notice in substantially the following form on the actual duplication.
        “Lord, Send Me Anywhere”
        Words and music by David Livingston and Faye Lopez
        © 1978, Musical Ministries
        Used by permission. CCLI License 1338029 ( © BJU’s CCLI Number)

     2. This BJU CCLI license number (1338029) must appear on every printed sheet if the material is copyrighted. Of course if a song is not copyrighted, none of this applies.

B. The Center for Leadership Development Office has a copy of the CCLI License Manual if you have any specific questions. Please understand that the Church Copyright License does not convey the right to photocopy or duplicate “any choral sheet music (octavos), cantatas, musicals, handbell music, keyboard arrangements, vocal solos, or instrumental works.”
Many students who come to BJU are familiar with the musical genres known as Christian Contemporary Music (CCM). Due to the style and philosophy of the CCM movement, BJU neither identifies with nor promotes the performance style of CCM. Because of this institutional distinctive, music used in your society should be drawn only from approved hymnals, chorus books, audio recordings, and sheet music sold in the Bruins Shop or from songs that have been used in chapel in the FMA. Hymns Modern & Ancient is sold in the Bruins Shops and is approved. This policy allows you to choose from hundreds of acceptable conservative and recently written songs. If you have a question regarding another hymnal or chorus book, or an individual song, please bring it to the Coordinator of Student Leadership in the Center for Leadership Development. He will be glad to check on it for you.

WHAT IF I NEED HELP?

Please see the Coordinator of Student Leadership if you have any problems within your society. His office is located in the Den.

V. GENERAL SUGGESTIONS

A. Stay Current
   1. Record transactions in a timely fashion.
   2. Expense is incurred, but not due till after the item(s) are delivered.
      a) Record the expense in the Expenses Tab.
      b) If an expensed order is canceled or returned, put $0 for the expense and document clearly in the note section.

B. Protect yourself from suspicion.
   1. When money is collected in a meeting (for Thanksgiving or Bible Conference offering), have someone count the money at the time of receipt and sign his name to the envelope.
   2. Use Business Office checks or money orders whenever practical.

C. ALWAYS obtain a written confirmation (contract or acknowledgment) of orders placed with outside businesses. If an order is placed by phone, ask that a confirmation be sent to you. You have no recourse when a problem arises (price change, wrong color, etc.) if you rely on verbal agreements.

Audit Expectations

I. Ledger
   A. Form
      1. All society monetary transaction should be kept in the society ledger.
   B. Balance
      1. Society’s ledger ending balance must match Business Office Balance at the date of the audit.
      2. More than a $5-10 of dollars off will result in a failure of the audit.
   C. Documentation
      1. All transactions must be supported by appropriate documentation. This could be in the form of receipts, credit card statements, or other documentation. The Society Treasurer should never disburse money to anyone without some type of documentation. Failure to obtain and provide documentation for withdrawals will result in failure of the audit and a fine.
      2. If a rare circumstance arises and documentation is un-obtainable for a transaction (ie: buying off of Craigslist), Society Treasurer must write a note of explanation in place of a receipt.

II. Audit Turn-In Procedure
   - The SLC treasurer will provide a timely notice for the selected day of audit. By the end of the selected day, each treasurer will perform the following:
      A. Deposit ALL cash to the business office by 4:00 PM.
      B. Submit the up-to-date ledger to the audit dropbox.
      C. Scan and submit all receipts, withdrawal, and deposit slips to the audit dropbox.

III. Failure of Audit: Penalties
   A. Failure to submit the ledger, receipts, and withdrawal and deposit slips on the audit date to the ISC Treasurer is a $25 fine.
   B. Failure of Audit (for any of the above reasons) will result in a $15 to $50 fine.
      - Fines are most often levied for missing documentation – please be very careful in this area.
   C. Failure of Audit will also result in a suspension of the society’s access to any of its money in the Business Office until the Society President and Treasurer have met with the SLC Treasurer and discussed the audit. Suspension will be lifted upon meeting with the SLC Treasurer.
